DULLEST FIVE DAYS IN MONTHS AT END

Investors Apparently Have Lost Interest in the Financial District.

BONDS SOMEWHAT BETTER

Frisco Disclosures Increase Bitter Feeling Abroad Against American Securities.

BY HERODAN WALL.

New York, Nov. 21.—For all practical purposes, the stock exchange week ends on Friday. Many brokers make it a practice not to come down town at all on Saturdays. Investors have apparently lost interest in the financial district, and speculators have long since ceased to visit the street.

Trading today barely exceeded 100,000 shares. This being the dullest five days in months.

COWDRAY OUTLINES POLICY IN MEXICO

During Entire Time in Country Never Mixed in Politics, Directly or Indirectly.

London, November 21.—Lord Cowdray today, after much persuasion, consented to give the following statement, outlining his aims and policy in Mexico.

"Some years ago a man who had had a lifetime monopoly of the oil business in Mexico became exasperated because of the unprofitable nature of the business.

"The campaign was usually continued very thoroughly until the petitioner in question was able to silence all competitors with his monopoly.

"I have come into this because the campaign then waged was the basis of the attacks recently made upon my firm throughout the United States.

"We commenced this work in 1909. It was only in 1908 that my real output began. We sunk millions of dollars—not dollars—in Mexico, but in power work of this kind it is necessary to make an investment.

"The foregoing assistance of all development takes the place of subvention. I have granted and guarantee of capital which other countries usually without which railroads cannot be built in such countries.

"The rumors that these concessions of mine were cancelled by Madero are false. We were on the best of terms with Madero and entered into a government contract for the oil.

"I am not in politics, neither in America or Mexico," he replied.
